Our Board of Education

The fine reputation of the Freeport High School has been created by its alumni. The fact that the alumni have been able to reflect credit to the Freeport High School is in no small measure due to the constructive interest of the community, the board of education, and the faculty in keeping the opportunities for our young people on a high level. You, the alumni, are now, or in a short time will be, active members of this community. Some of you may be members of the faculty; some may be board members; many of you will be parents, and it is you who will have most to say about the future of our high school.

New Agriculture Building

If the faculty of our high school has helped you to get an understanding of your present and future responsibilities as worthy members of this community, and has given you an understanding of how to exercise these responsibilities within the framework of the democratic process of government, our expenditure for a good high school is a bargain price to have paid for the betterment of this community and other communities in which you may reside.

George W. Simmons, President,
Board of Education No. 145

B. F. SHAFER

Superintendent of Public Schools

Mrs. Shafer

A well-educated, well-trained citizenry is a nation's greatest resource. Studies sponsored by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce show that a high level of education has a greater influence on living standards than does an abundance of natural resources such as rich land, coal, or mineral deposits. If this is true, the possibilities for you, living in a country rich in natural resources and maintaining a high level of education, are almost unlimited. I say "almost unlimited" because your future will be limited by the intelligence, industry, and good will which you exercise. We have confidence that the young people of today feel their responsibilities to society and will make their contribution to the physical, moral, and spiritual greatness of America.

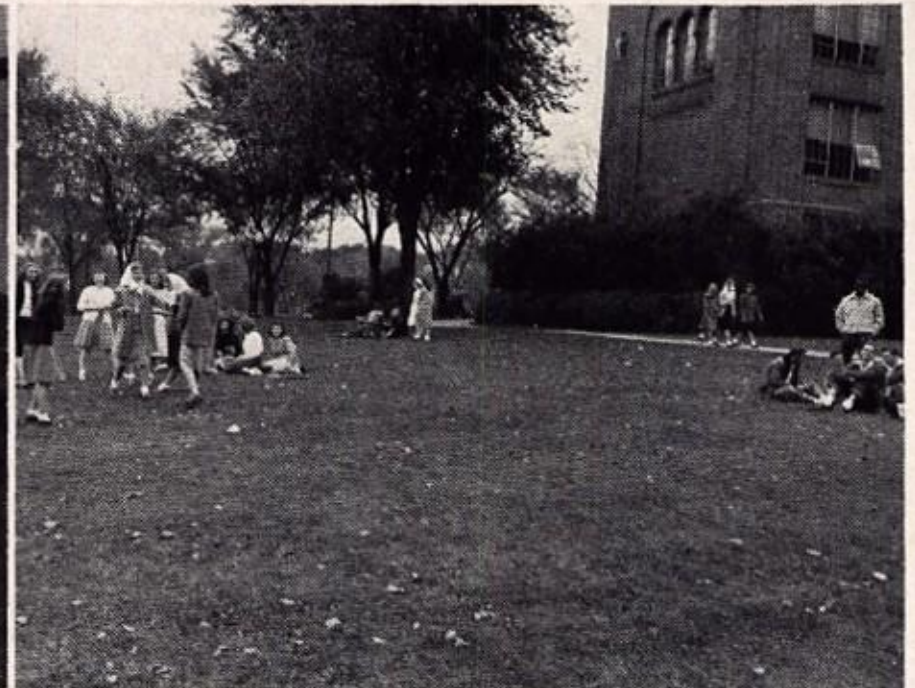

I congratulate you upon the completion of your high school work. Our interest in you and your problems has not ceased because you have been graduated. If we can be of any help to you in the future, do not hesitate to call on us. You will always be welcome in the Freeport High School.

Secretary to Board of Education and to Superintendent of Schools

Greetings from the Senior High P.-T.A.

Not the book of the week or the month or year, but the book of the years is the Polaris!

Its service is half begun when it is seized, praised, and autographed in frenzied moments; it will be best when years later you "look up" some classmate who has just married or who has won fame in science, industry, or the arts.

No one group rejoices more in the good things that will come to this class than their parents who are members of the P.-T.A. Our working together has been limited because we are a comparatively new organization, but the privilege has been worthwhile.

The challenge to work and make the democratic way succeed has never been so strong. We count on you.

We salute you!

Mrs. R. C. Hunter,
President, Senior High P.-T.A.

"Teachers, teachers, here we come, Right back where you started from."

L. E. MENSENKAMP
Principal

Mrs. Mensenkamp

My wish for you, the students, is that you will make these precious high school years count most heavily toward your own development. You must seek an education for power. This means education with a serious purpose. You must constantly strive to relate the things you learn to your present and future needs and to the life-and-death problems of our troubled times.

Are you learning to think critically and independently about life's problems? Are you becoming skillful in some worthwhile vocation? Are you a good citizen of the school and the community? Have you acquired an abiding appreciation for the finer things in life?

If you can answer these questions in the affirmative, you may look back on your high school days with satisfaction throughout the years to come.

Mrs. Kloos

Have you ever stopped to ponder the number of trained people required to run our schools efficiently? To enumerate, there are the members of the school board who decide the policies and improvements carried out by our school. Mr. Shafer, superintendent of schools, works in conjunction with the board and co-ordinates the scholastic activities of Freeport. Mr. Mensenkamp, principal of F.H.S. and friend of the students, solves the innumerable administrative problems of our high school. Mr. Kloos, assistant principal, manages our finances and serves ably as dean of boys. Miss Huebner, dean of girls, un-tangles the girls' knotty problems and is also an instructor in our English department. Mrs. Andersen, with a corps of office workers, keeps the records straight and handles the complicated bookkeeping.

These and all our teachers and our interested parents work together in keeping ours a school system which runs smoothly, turning out futures for you and me and the world.

We, the students, express our genuine appreciation to these who make possible the kind of education that enables us to meet the problems of our present world.

Do You Remember?

Do you remember how you felt when we were freshmen? That was four long years ago. A lot has happened to our class since then. Do you remember how we worked each year for our king and queen? Neal Steinhoff and Lorna Luebbing surely made good senior candidates.

As juniors we worked hard on Stardust and oversold the house. The proceeds from this we used to send the class of '47 off whistling a "Rhapsody in Blue," and this year we are guests at the prom. Speaking of plays, I laughed at January Thaw 'til I thought I'd die.

A battalion of fifteen boys represented us at Boys' State last summer. Through a last-minute write-in election, "Buck" Stout was elected Governor, and Ron Jeffery was elected Secretary of State to boot. They shook the hand of the President of the United States. Sheriff Sally Rideout and Secretary of State Mary Ellen Broge were at Girls' State then.

Student Government Day saw Mayor "Buck" Stout running the city, "Willie" Sandifer running the police department, and Elmo Kerr managing the hose house.

President Lee Mitchell and Mr. Spudich

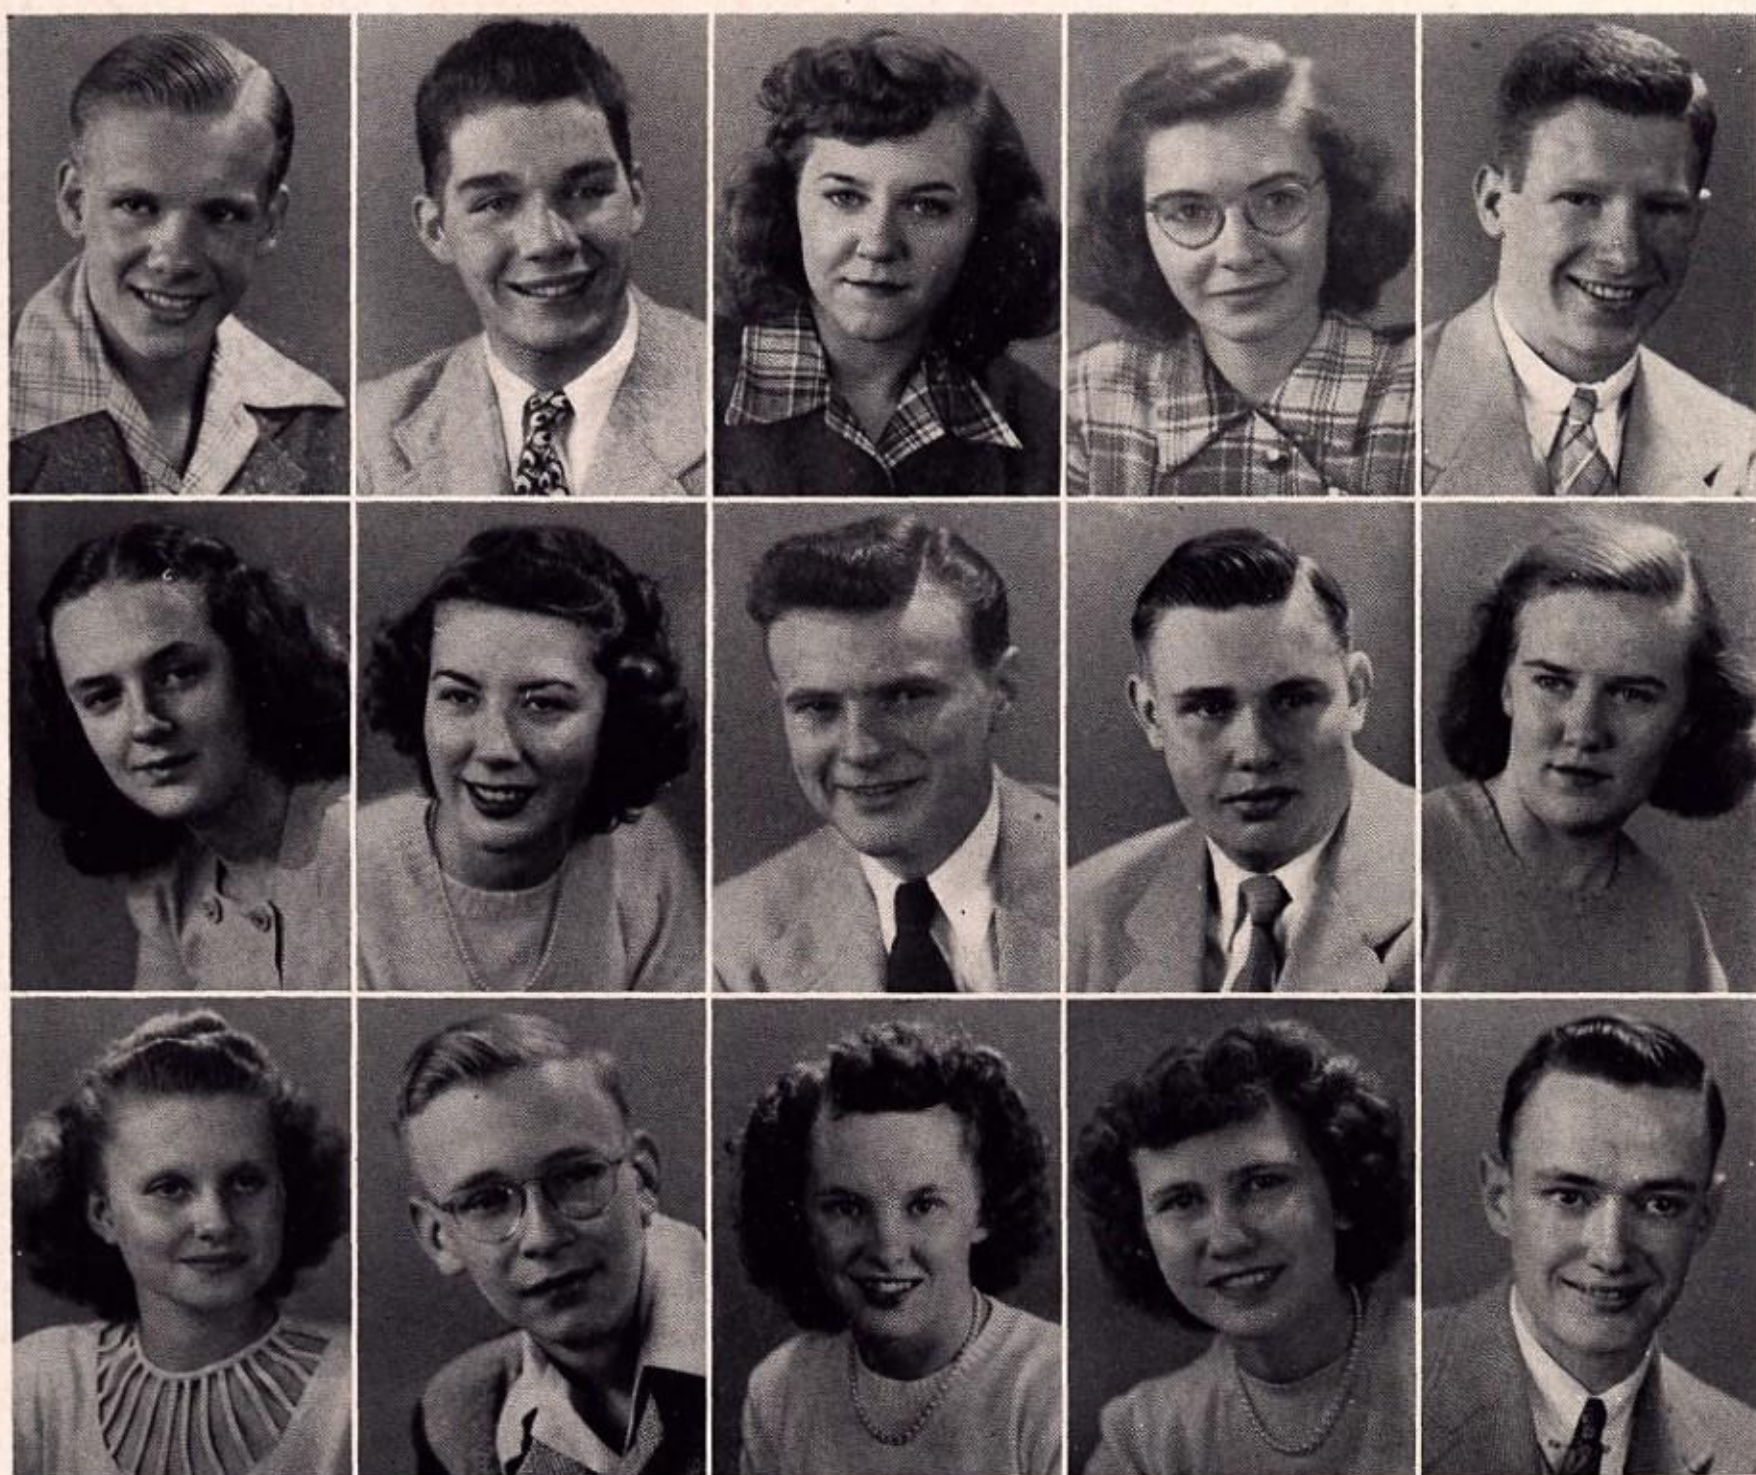

certainly showed us a good time at this school's first all-school Hallowe'en party. This year has brought us a fine new agricultural building and a car for our driving course.

It seems as if Freeport always has a good debate team, but why shouldn't it with men like Bob Higley. (Ever been in his history class?)

Football came back strong this season after two years crippled by polio. You can't have a bad season when fellows even come out on crutches to practice, "Mitch" we mean. Our basketball team certainly didn't lack spirit, and that's the most important thing. Web was pretty proud of our track team's winning the district last year.

These things and loads of others far too numerous to mention go to make up the history of the class of '48. And now we are graduating; some will go to college, some will go to work, but we will always remember F.H.S., the good times we had here and what they taught us here. Now we are going out to join the world's millions to work, to sweat, and to make this old planet a little better place on which to live.

Highlights of Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom, June, '47

Rhapsody in Blue

Clouds and luminous stars were tacked securely to the balcony, and the last flower, blue tree, bluebird, and bench was in its place. Someone switched the lights on and off, checking the blue flood lights on the big gold harp in the center of the gym. The "Rhapsody in Blue" theme had been carried out in the cafeteria also: flowers everywhere and amid them blue nutcups bedecked with gold stars, and white clouds drifting on blue programs, your name in gold tucked in the clouds. The big event was only an hour away, and everyone rushed home to get into those suits and formals.

Then, the dinner, a banquet fit for a king, prepared by Mrs. Rucker and her co-workers, and served with gracious ease by sophomore girls trained by Miss Darner. Bob Higley, the toastmaster, began the program, and Mr. Mensenkamp ended it. The girls' trio, Betty Buhlman, Donna Vohlken, Barbara Borne-man, with Betty Lubbers as accompanist, introduced all speakers. Next the grand march and dancing, to the music of an orchestra surrounded by fleecy clouds. The main attraction of the evening was the floor show, consisting of a harp solo played by Merrilyn Hecht, vocal solo by Pat Sellke, and ballet numbers by Corinne Ranney.

So thanks to our chairmen, Bob and Norma, all the junior committees, and the advisers, Miss Huebner, Miss Musser, and Mr. Clarno, for a prom to remember.

Junior! Upperclassman! The most wonderful grade in school! Being a junior is one of the best years of your life, and each day, from the time you get up, 'til you go to bed at night, is so chuck-full of activities and fun that you feel as though you just want to be a junior all your life.

Remember the football games—those exciting ones where the boys came through just in time with that winning touchdown? Government Day, too. We were the big shots then—the bosses for one day. Next came the carnival with all of us working hard for our king and queen.

Then the big event of the year—the prom! How we worked day after day, but all the hardships were forgotten on that glorious night of beauty, music, color, and dancing. That was something we'll never forget. Yes, we had fun, lots of it. We eagerly awaited certain occasions and looked forward to them, but what about other things that we seemingly overlook?

What about the future? Just think, next year we'll be seniors! Afterwards—we will be on our own. Study that math and learn that history now. That's just one more step in preparing for a happy future along with all those activities. Take on added responsibilities and learn to work with leaders and other students.

Where will these boys and girls be five or ten years from now? Who is most likely to succeed? All these questions will be answered in time only, but we can and must start building these answers now!

Remember juniors—tomorrow you will be seniors, and the tomorrow after that you will be engaged in your life's work or furthering your education for it. If you plan to go to college, keep those good grades up and enroll early. During these three short vacation months, you'd better grow broad shoulders in order to assume that senior dignity and responsibility.

CLASS OF '49 ISSUES F.H.S SAFETY CODE

Accidents do not happen. They are caused.

The school population in the United States is about 25 million students. During any school year about 500,000 are injured and 7,000 are killed in accidents. Thirty-five percent of the accidents and deaths occur in the school buildings and on the school grounds.

Basic rules to help prevent accidents:

1. Be accident-conscious and realize that accidents can occur from trivial circumstances.

2. Never indulge in a practical joke. Many practical jokes lead to serious results.

3. Remember that you are only one of 1043 F. H. S. students in the halls between classes. Running without regard for safety of others will result in injury and a loss, rather than a saving of time. Be responsible not only for your own welfare but also for the welfare of those around you.

4. On the way to and from school, avoid walking in the middle of the road or street on which automobiles travel. Walking on the left side of the road, facing traffic, will do much to avoid accidents.

5. Prompt and efficient first-aid will minimize serious results. If you are involved in an accident in which another is injured, notify someone in authority immediately.

"BIG 8" PRESS CONFERENCE

Future journalists would have profited by attending the annual "Big 8" Press Conference held at Freeport High School, October 25, 1947. At the opening session, the students were greeted by Mr. Mensenkamp, our principal. Following this a short business session was conducted by Mary Ellen Broge, the general chairman. One of the most unusual talks of the day was given at this time, entitled "The Orient As I Saw It," by Ellsworth Green, Secretary of the Freeport Chamber of Commerce.

Eight division meetings were held from 9:45 to 11:55, during which time major problems of publications were discussed. Students were given their choice of two of the following: Sports Writing, Writing for an Audience, Originality in Yearbook Layout, Flash Photography, F M Broadcasting, Printing Problems, Financing Your Annual, and Feature Writing.

The luncheon in the cafeteria was the highlight of the day. "Big 8" school songs were sung in a get-acquainted session, and Donald Breed, editor of the Freeport Journal-Standard, gave the main address, showing what to expect in the future in the field of journalism.

Freeport High Holds Open House

Lower picture panel, p. 49

On the night of November 11, '47, Freeport High School celebrated National Education Week by holding its annual Open House. The parents first assembled in the gym and were greeted by the president of the Senior High School Parent Teachers' Association, Mrs. R. C. Hunter. A musical program was then presented by the orchestra and the a cappella choir.

The mothers and fathers were then privileged to visit the various rooms and the instructors of their children.

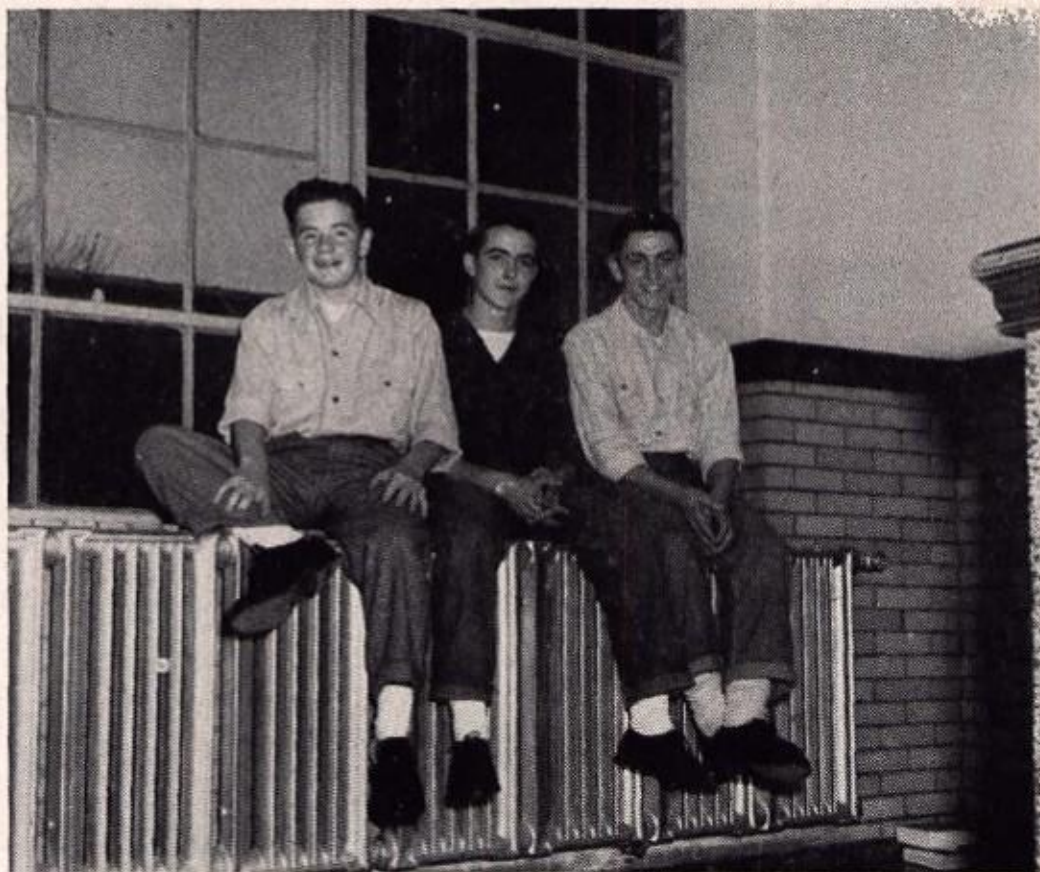

Several of the rooms had displays, with the foods and the clothing rooms having those of special interest to the ladies, while dad and little brother were entertained by the manual arts department and the dissected frog in the biology room. The art room was constantly filled with visitors who were very free with their praise of the many paintings and sketches exhibited.

According to the ancient Greeks, we could be called the "wise fools" of F.H.S. Probably everyone except us will say that we are ninety-nine and forty-four one hundredths percent foolishness. But let us look at a few of the things which made up the last year. School started off in high with our glancing contemptuously down our noses at the freshies, the "salt of the soda cracker."

Soon we trotted off to the football stadium to cheer our team on to three victories, one tie, and five defeats until homecoming ended the jovial season. Wasn't it pure wisdom that won us third prize for our float in the homecoming parade? (Wisdom and work!)

We lasted through the semester finals. Some of us even found energy enough to raise money for the yearbook by dances and food sales, so that on the carnival night we at least had tried to have the sophomore king and queen attain rank of the highest royalty, King and Queen of Carni-Bowl.

Valor is the better part of wisdom, and our basketball team really displayed valor, with plenty of promising players.

We had lots of laughs this year while we were seeking knowledge. (Weren't those freshmen confused?) If we just remember "A wise man will hear and increase in learning, but fools dispise wisdom and instruction," soon we will rule F.H.S. as seniors and some day govern the United States as free voters and citizens—for "To the wise the way of life goes upwards."

Class of '51 Has Freshman Mixer

In October lots of events occur, but in the memories of the class of '51 our mixer comes first. It was just for us and made us feel quite important.

We found ourselves "caught" in the follow-the-leader initiation game, proved good mixers but poor spellers in the name-getting contest, scavengers par excellence in the campus hunt, and were the first class this year to have a grand march.

Were those Mexican Mounds ever good! We, as freshmen in '47, go on record for more mixers.

Green, green, green! We poor, misguided souls, called freshmen, were entering big Freeport High, and out of the 172, 172 were scared. What we knew could be counted on one finger, and our puzzling problems included room numbers, teachers' names and subjects, correct floors and buildings, and to which office to bring our various difficulties. We solemnly pledged never to treat incoming freshmen as we were treated by the honorable . . . honorable? . . . seniors. (Now we're glad we didn't shake on that.)

Class of '51

Advisers: Miss Robinson, Mr. Whitman

President: Dick McGill

Vice-President: Melvin Johnson

Secretary-Treasurer: Cynthia Ousley

Seeing our confusion, the teachers planned a Freshie Mixer in an effort to get us better acquainted. It really mixed us up, and we're still not unmixed, but it was a good try, and we appreciated the effort.

As we got into the swing of things, the hectic process of electing officers arose. We chose our most reliable fellow students to lead us out of the valley of the shadows of our "betters" (a name with which the seniors referred themselves to us) into our own light.

This completed, we started our next and hardest project, carnival capers. We dug down deep and spent a small fortune buying balloons, snapshots, pretzels, and pastries from the loyal sellers in the class.

Tho' we knew the senior couple couldn't be beaten, we worked for our candidates with the true Doc Pretzel spirit. May Doc Pretz continue to be our guide our whole lives long. (Will we ever, ever be seniors?)

Class of '52

I was about eight years old when I used to play I was in high school. When I was in Junior High, I never dreamed high school would be like this. Now that I'm here, I simply love it! I like the way we can go to our lockers between classes, and there is no monitor on the stairs, and we are just as happy as we ever were!! The teachers are very nice, and the people up here are so friendly! I thought that most of them would be snobs, but I find that I had the wrong idea!

And here the walls are very attractive because of the lovely pictures.

When I was in the band at Junior High, the music wasn't very hard. But boy! When I first came here—I couldn't even keep up with the band—that's how good the band is!

There is a lot more home work, but I don't mind that so much.

Another thing I like about being in high school is that you can join the Jerc and go to dances after the games.

I'm having loads of fun here at Senior High, and even if we do get teased about being "Freshies"—we don't mind it because everyone has to go through that stage!

To the other people—who are going to be "Freshies" soon—I want to say that I hope they have the fun I did, and hope they like high school and the things and people in it—as I did also!!!!!!

Eat those crackers!

Choose!

Choose for the fun you'll have;

Choose for the service you can give others;

Choose for the friendships you can't help but make when you join one of our clubs, enter some extra-curricular activity, or select the elective subject you most enjoy.

(You will find requirements for "belonging" or "becoming eligible" listed with each

Choose now! You will be the winner if you do, and so will I!

My Personal Record for Future Success

Gaining an education is an important business. Check marks (✓) after subjects indicate those I have taken at F.H.S. Semester credits are listed under "C" and grades under "G". An accurately kept record will come in handy as a reference for future employers or college entrance data. My memberships in clubs, organizations, and extra-curricular activities are checked on individual page write-ups in this book.

Requirements for graduation: 32 credits, or four each semester. (See page 8 of F.H.S. News-letter). College entrance requirements: 15 to 16 units or 30 to 32 high school credits. (See page 6 of News-letter for necessary majors and minors).

We Thank You

To the more than a hundred persons who daily help us here at F.H.S., members of the office, cafeteria, and library staffs, visual aid and public address assistants, we pause to say "Thank you very much."

Doc Pretz's idea is that without the aid of these willing helpers F.H.S. could not exist efficiently for even one day.

Hall Monitors

As guides for visitors, directors of noon traffic, and persons generally responsible for halls at F.H.S., our monitors are indispensable aids.

Adviser, Mr. Lumby

Projection Club

Three main benefits of this club are the enjoyment of showing and learning many fine points of approved films, lifetime career interest in projection (a very profitable business), and the one-fourth credit earned per semester.

Membership requirements:

Sign up with adviser when announcement is made for all interested boys to join. Freshmen preferred.

Reet Sheet Staff

To keep up to date on present and future F.H.S. events and frolics, read the "Reet Sheet" in the "Freeport Journal-Standard" every Wednesday. Local paper chooses editors; co-editors volunteer.

Editors: R. Gallagher, M. Broge, E. Lamm, J. Koym.
Co-editors: F. Stanfield, L. Miller, C. Bingham, C. Roth, L. Maxey, J. Kirkman. Adviser, Mr. Lumby.

Teen Ager's Incorporated

F.H.S. quiz show broadcasts at the Jerc started as a summer feature over F.M., Tuesday evenings, at 8:30. Bob Eckert and Mary Ellen Broge were in charge, names being drawn from a box for participants. When Bob left for college, Ronnie Staben took his place. Second semester came, and the students' heavy school work halted the broadcasts.

Public Address System

The duty of the public address staff is to run the public address system for assemblies, dances, and anything else that needs an amplifier mike and loud-speaker. We work in pairs to make the task easier. This is not a club but part of the regular activities in radio communications.

Eligibility requirements:

All senior boys in radio communication class.

Radio Club

Though just two years old, this club is advancing rapidly to a well-organized group which goes "on the air" at every meeting and has a "swell" time listening to other "hams" miles away.

Membership requirements:

Any boy in his third or fourth year of radio is eligible. Initiation essential.

Meetings: Every other week at various homes of Freeport radio amateurs.

Did you ever think of the work that goes into your nutritious noon meal at the cafeteria? Many of the students who aid Mrs. Rucker and her staff have worked in the cafeteria for four years. They have different jobs, as serving the piping hot food; keeping the counters filled; making sandwiches, salads, and desserts; clearing trays, and washing dishes. They certainly earn our hearty appreciation.

Students are Cashiers

"30 cents 42 cents" is accompanied by the ringing of the cash register, as the student cashiers in the cafeteria quickly and efficiently add up the cost of your lunch. They have to be rapid and good mathematicians to keep both lines moving. One girl makes out the ticket while the other makes change. Student cashiers this year are Roxanna McConnell, Doris Reed, Maxine Voss, and Mary Ellen Bast.

Thank You, Cafeteria Personnel

'Tis said that mental capacity rises and falls due to calorie intake. Then to Mrs. Rucker and you goes part of the credit for all those A's and B's we make.

Ladies responsible for helping Mrs. Rucker in preparing our nutritious and delicious daily lunches: Mrs. Helen Smith, Mrs. Louise Kailey, Mrs. Gladys Jones, Mrs. Margaret Hawes, Mrs. Alice Dir, Mrs. Mabel Vore, Mrs. Mary Schmidt.

Charting Careers in English I

Challenge to Youth

I. To gain an appreciation and understanding of the inheritance that is mine because I am an American: my Freedom, privileges, opportunities, my responsibilities for maintaining this inheritance—and the incentive to see and do that which is mine to accomplish so that the world may be a better place in which to live.

II. To be able to form my own opinions so I can see my line of action clearly and independently of the influence of others and yet be able to regard with due respect and understanding the right of others to form and carry out their own opinions in accordance with the well-being of all.

III. To realize my importance in life, how my individual efforts and growth, mentally, physically, and spiritually, can help enrich and benefit my home, school, community, nation, and world.

To try to think in the future as well as the present.

IV. To see that the vocation I choose be one not only concerned with my interests and desires, but that it vitally must fit in with the needs of and benefits to the future world; that it must, so far as I am capable, add to the security, happiness, and well-being of others in my own community, my own country, and all the other countries of my world.

We, the youth of today, appreciate all the advice, the guidance, and help the adults of today can give us. We, in Freeport High School, especially appreciate the "National Forum Guidance Series" sponsored and purchased for us by our board of education. Its areas, "High School Life," "Discovering Myself," "Planning My Future," and the senior unit, "Toward Adult Living," help immensely to give us the right viewpoint toward accepting our place in the world.

The Atomic Age challenges us, but the atomic bomb gave a challenge to educators, too.

We accept our challenge, and we are deeply grateful for all the guidance given us by our parents, teachers, counselors, administrators, and all citizens in our home-town community or in any community of our world.

We would like to think and work our way to permanent peace.

Mechanical Drawing

Your Craftsmen of the Future

Students who are interested in manual arts and who wish to cultivate that skill to a greater degree are given ample opportunity to do this in Freeport High School.

Four programs are given: machine shop, electricity, mechanical drawing, and woodworking, all designed to benefit the student by providing an outlet for creative desire and by giving training which can be used to make a living after graduation.

In the machine-shop course, Mr. Kruse instructs students in the use of lathes, saws, and drills. Students are expected to make threaded bolts, screw-drivers, punches, and hammers according to plan.

The woodworking students make very fine articles such as tables, table-lamps, model boats, and model airplanes.

In the electricity department, students work with radios, generators, and various other electrical equipment. The freshmen study fundamental knowledge in electricity and advance each year to more difficult work. Some of the students put their electrical "knowhow" to use in operating the school public-address system.

In the study of mechanical drawing, students learn how to draw blueprints and to represent things so they have three dimensions. They work with tools of the drawing trade, becoming skilled in their use, often making practical use of their study by working after school as draftsmen for some of the factories in Freeport.

When you hear the strange jumble of noises coming from the mechanical arts building, remember that skilled workers of tomorrow are preparing to meet the world and accept their place in it.

Future Farmers of America in Freeport High School feel particularly lucky. They have a new course this year, and they have a new building all their own. Thirty-two students signed up for the course in agriculture.

Highlights of this group have been many ever since the organization of the local chapter under the direction of the sectional vice-president. This was followed closely by the initiation of all "greenhands."

Entry into Section I district contests was another outstanding adventure, including grain and poultry judging, parliamentary procedure, public speaking, and dairy and fat stock judging. Highlights also included ten acres of variety and test plots of corn and oats, broadcasts over local radio stations, and participation in the state F.F.A. convention.

First degree membership requirements in F.F.A.:

1. Boy must be enrolled in vocational agriculture.
2. Must have satisfactory plans for carrying out a supervised farming program.
3. Must be familiar with purposes of F.F.A. and the program of work.
4. Must recite the creed.
5. Must receive majority vote of members present at regular meeting.

One Way to a Man's Heart

Not often are courses offered with the guarantee that the student will live "happily ever after," but taking F.H.S. home economics subjects gives every girl that chance.

Read some of the "ingredients" of the eight courses now offered for essentials of a girl's success as a homemaker, the highest vocation for which any girl could wish to prepare:

Basic principles of good nutrition and food preparation; planning and preparing attractive breakfasts, luncheons, and dinners at various price levels; consumer problems; banquet assisting; party foods; Christmas cookery; the Red Cross home nursing course, including invalid cookery, study of personal and family relationships and home management; principles of color and design in construction of clothing; good taste in selecting home furnishings; wardrobe planning; study of new textiles, child care and training, home safety, and vocations.

Crafts courses include weaving, stencil painting, batik dyeing, designing, and painting. A piece of original weaving was entered in the National Scholastic Art contest this year.

HOME EC CLUB

The club is primarily a service club. This year the girls have made holiday tray favors for a hospital and given Christmas gifts and cookies to a children's home.

Each year the club gives some worthwhile gift to the school. A mirror, electric clock, and woolen blankets have been placed in the faculty lounge.

Outside speakers are brought in to discuss such topics as charm or careers, and other meetings are purely social.

Requirements for membership: Students must have completed at least one semester of home economics with an average of C.

Funnel and Flask Science Club

Funnel and Flask consists of future doctors, nurses, pharmacists, college professors, and research experts who meet in room 210 every second and fourth Tuesday of each month seeking further scientific enlightenment.

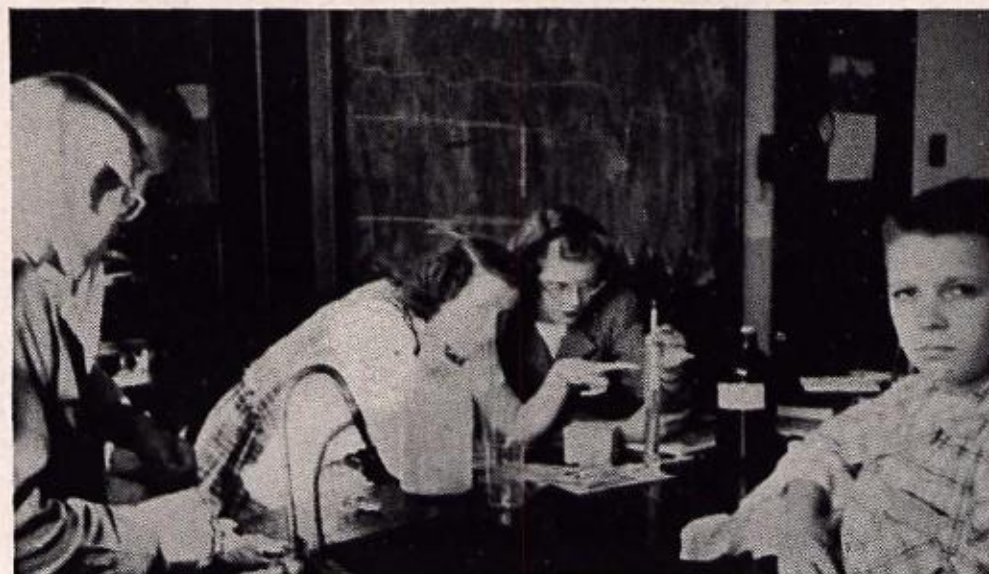

This year the club's over-all project was crystallization, and every member is busy tracking down elusive crystalline structure.

Each member reports once a year on his project. So far this year, reports have been given as follows: Thermo Electricity, Sheldon Best; Hydrogen Manufacturing, Bob Whitcomb; Growing Crystals from Various Solutions, Carolann Bingham, John Barrett.

A visit to the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago was planned, and a group picnic closed the activities of the year.

Membership requirements: Interest in science, good grades, desire to do something extra in science.

Officers: President, Sheldon Best; Vice-President, Dale Kaiser; Secretary-Treasurer, John Barrett; Adviser, Mr. Funk.

The Hours I Spend With You

Our library with its long tables, rows of brightly-bound books, and quiet atmosphere isn't just a place to read or look at magazines when we have nothing to do in study hall.

The library is a reference room with its card index, encyclopedias, and big dictionaries. Our school subscribes to many useful as well as entertaining magazines and orders many of the recent books.

Both overnight and two-week books may be checked out by Miss Harmon, Miss Davenport, or student assistants.

The hours you spend in efficient use of the benefits a library offers students are a definite asset in obtaining a good high-school record.

Drivers' Course

Each semester Freeport High School offers a drivers' course, taught by Mr. Martin, to thirty boys and girls, fifteen years old or older. The course lasts nine weeks, and its subject matter includes both class-room and practical experience. Through the co-operation of the Monroe Chevrolet Sales Company, which donated the use of a dual-control car, and the State Highway Police, the students are able to take the state driver's test at the end of the course and are eligible for the driver's license.

Student Government Day

Vote for Honest Willie Sandifer for Police Magistrate! Peggy Myers for City Clerk! Gallagher for Mayor! Vote for Jean Kasten for City Clerk! Mammoser for Police Magistrate! Vote for Wheat for Treasurer! Thus the cries that were heard around school during the political campaign.

There were two parties, Citizens and Peoples. To determine the party to which you would belong, the name of each student enrolled in a government class was drawn from a box; one went to the Citizens and one to the Peoples. Next, petitions were signed for the four elective officers: mayor, city clerk, city treasurer, and police magistrate. A primary election was held. Some students, not being satisfied with their parties, started a third party for the first time in school history. The name of the party was the Pretzels, representing the boys and girls of Freeport High School. Each party worked out a political platform of three or four issues. Two were the paving of Empire Street from Locust to Walnut, and having city buses run until twelve o'clock on Friday and Saturday nights. Everybody campaigned for his respective party.

Election day came. Great anticipation, votes counted, and the results: Mayor, Buck Stout; City Clerk, Peggy Myers; City Treasurer, Ann Wheat; Willie Sandifer, Police Magistrate. Two of the elected were from the Citizens' party, two from the Peoples' party. The Pretzels failed to get any candidates into office. Everyone in government classes was appointed to a special job by the elected officers.

November 3 arrived, a lovely day, with the weather man very cooperative. Mayor Miller welcomed us, hoping we would enjoy the day. Sliding down the fire-station pole, eating popcorn, riding in squad cars, arresting Joe Hannah (who didn't show up for his office) and having a fire drill at Junior and Senior High were the highlights of the day. In the evening we attended the council meeting. We all were amazed at the rate of swiftness with which the meeting was conducted. Each student alderman gave a short speech—and suggested a way to better the city. It proved to be a worthwhile day for all of us.

We are very grateful to Mr. Lumby, our instructor; the school; Mayor Miller; and everybody concerned for letting us have Student Government Day and making it a huge success.

My Land and Your Land and Their Languages

Are you going into government service, be a Congressman, or diplomat on foreign soil? The word foreign is a misnomer. The world is shrinking when one considers transportation facilities, and our once-upon-a-time foreign neighbors are right next door. If you knew them, you would like them very much. But to know and understand them, you, also, must understand their language.

Now, if you are going into government service, you would be wise to study French. And should you be contemplating the vocation of a businessman, better know your Spanish.

Do the fields of law, medicine, nursing, the ministry, journalism, or teaching lure you? Then obtain an adequate Latin vocabulary.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Would you like to join the French club of Freeport High? Then enroll in a French class.

Membership requirements: Student must be taking French or have had one year.

Officers, 1947-48: Jim Heath, president; Marilyn Hecht, vice-president; Maribeth Mogle, secretary-treasurer; Miss Luebbing, adviser.

EL CIRCULO CASTELLANO

Programs of the Spanish club pertain to some Spanish habit or custom. Sometimes you are gypsies, sometimes Christmas carolers in Spain, and again a clear-headed, hard-thinking businessman.

Membership requirements: Student must have taken at least one semester of Spanish and be taking it, or have completed three years.

Officers, 1947-48: Joan Turner, president; Lois Kerr, vice-president; Elizabeth Lamm, secretary-treasurer; Miss Schmidt, adviser.

UNDERSTANDING OUR NEIGHBORS

Excerpts from letter of Victor Aponti: (Foreign Correspondent of Joan Turner)

Dear Joan,

I am very glad to have received your letter. For being a second-year student, you speak Spanish perfectly. I am 18 years old and am studying at the high school of Cayey, Puerto Rico. I have light hair and brown eyes. My father is of Spanish descent, and my mother is French.

My city has 35,000 population. Puerto Rico is between the Caribbean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean. The people of Puerto Rico are civilized people, contrary to the thoughts of some Americans.

As for your picture—I shall say you are very pretty, and you will be the one who will be disappointed when you see my picture. You can be sure that if some day I should go to the United States, I would visit you.

The United States are wonderful, I think, because a person can be traveling all his life and can't know all the United States. It is not as Puerto Rico that has thirty-six miles in width by one hundred in length.

"Too Late To Reform"

The first Wednesday of every month the members of the Latin Club hurry to room 116, where they spend an hour or more in educational and recreational activities. Commercial Department

The special job of the commercial department is to provide training for business. Secretaries, stenographers, typists, bookkeepers, salespeople, and many other workers in the business community of Freeport have received their basic training in the F.H.S. commercial department. Even though each year there are approximately 150 students enrolled in commercial classes, enough trained workers have not been supplied to meet the demand from local business firms.

For the student whose future plans include the operation of a business of his own, for the college preparatory student, or for the intelligent consumer, the commercial department offers several profitable classes. Included would be retail merchandising and management, bookkeeping (two years), commercial arithmetic, typing, and commercial geography.

To add interest and added incentives to greater accomplishment for the shorthand and typing classes, a system of special awards is used, consisting of both certificates and pins for speed, accuracy, and legibility. A total of 187 separate awards made by "The Gregg Writer," a professional magazine, were achieved during the past school year.

Secretarial Club

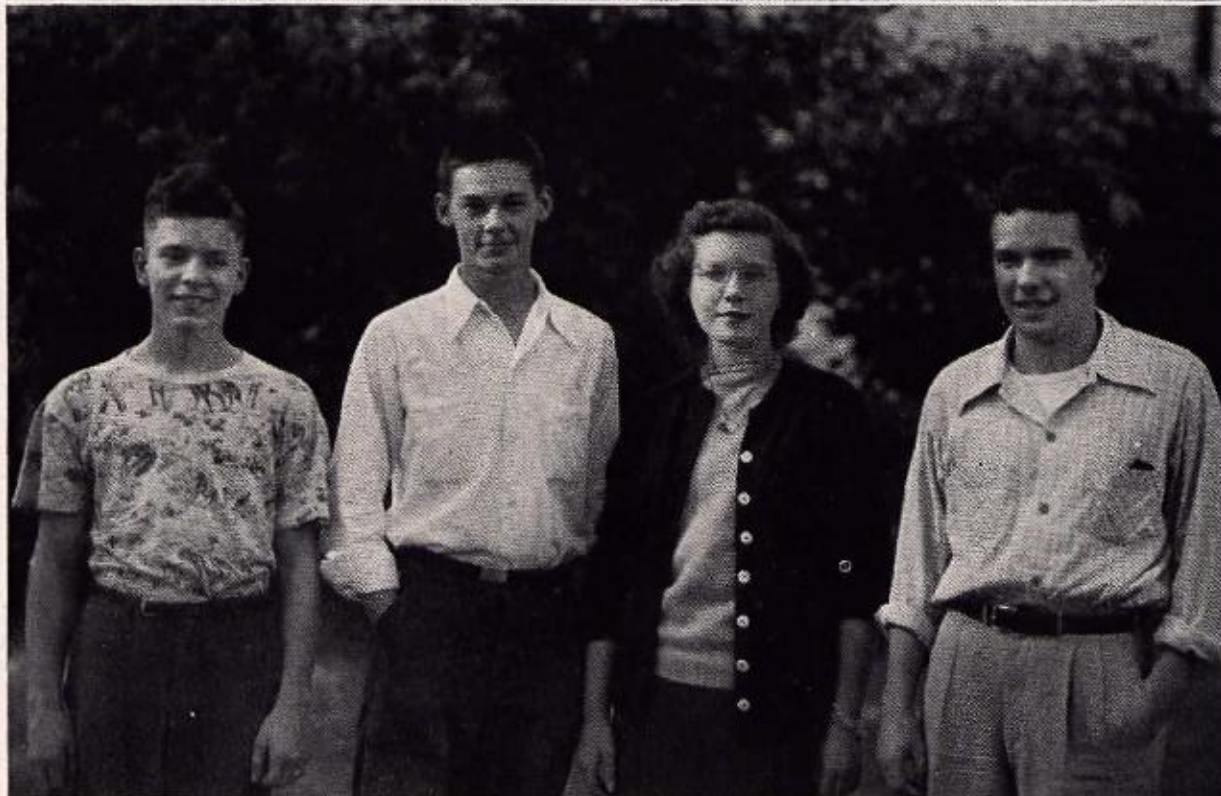

The Secretarial Club aims to develop a broader and deeper appreciation of the business world.

Activities include monthly business and social meetings, radio broadcasts, sponsoring some worthy cause each year.

Membership requirements: Student must be taking both typing and shorthand, either beginning or advanced. Officers: Pat Bangasser, president; Janice Dyslin, vice-president; Mary Lou Morgan, secretary; Joyce Wilson, treasurer; Miss Ritzinger, adviser

National Forensic League

The N.F.L. constitution states: "It shall be the purpose of this organization to promote the interests of interscholastic debate, orators, and public speaking by encouraging a spirit of fellowship and by conferring upon deserving candidates a worthy badge of distinction."

America has 500 chapters of the National Forensic League. The Freeport High School chapter was organized in 1929, and the ultimate goal of all speech students is membership in this league.

One of the benefits of membership in the N. F. L. is the receiving of "The Rostrum," the national magazine. 'Tis fun to read about the honors your school and you have achieved. Much of the success of our Freeport chapter is due to the help the students receive from their adviser, Mr. Enstrom.

There are four degrees of membership: merit, honor, excellence, and distinction. Students must garner twenty points in interscholastic speech competition before being eligible for first degree of merit. Two hundred points are necessary for the highest award, the degree of special distinction, an honor which Bob Higley holds at present.

A student is eligible for membership when he earns sufficient forensic points; these are awarded for each speech he gives or each debate in which he participates.

Philos

This organization, known officially as the Philomathian Society, is composed of seniors who have maintained a B plus average in their English classes. They are elected to the club at the end of their junior year, whereupon they are eligible to attend the annual spring picnic.

This picnic is the highlight of the year for the old members as it is their last meeting. Only pleasant memories of past experiences will now remind the Philos of '48 of their pot-luck supper, games, talks, and readings.

But the students have received more than enjoyment from their club. They also have obtained additional literary background which will make them better citizens of tomorrow.

Mr. Spudich's English Class

Few students realize how much personal skill in the use of oral and spoken English raises their social and vocational efficiency.

Membership requirements: High grade in English above B+ and attending meetings regularly.

Junior Red Cross Council

Each year the various homerooms of F.H.S. elect representatives to the Junior Red Cross Council, and the officers are elected by the council. These students work with their adviser, Mrs. Carnahan, in carrying out the projects of the year. The one-hundred percent membership goal, the record for which each year's council strives, was reached, along with contributions amounting to one hundred dollars and twenty cents for the crippled children's fund. This achievement was attained, due to the effort of the Junior Red Cross Council in collaboration with the students of F.H.S.

Officers for this year are as follows: George Maxey, president; Doris Atherton, vice-president; Ollie Mackert, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Carnahan, adviser

J E R C

The JERC is the teen-agers' hangout on Tuesday, Friday, and Saturday nights. Everyone and his cousin can be seen there. There is a large ballroom for dancing with music provided by the juke box, and on special occasions an orchestra is hired. There are always pop and ice cream to be bought. The JERC held open house last fall for all parents and friends. Everybody that takes advantage of the JERC enjoys himself. Mrs. Meile is the director, and a lot of credit must be given to her for her endless hours of work.

Membership requirements: Student must purchase a membership, be of high school age, and observe the four rules which hold good at all times: no drinking, no smoking, no profanity, no rowdyism.

Student Council

Crowning F.H.S. Homecoming Queen

The Student Council meets each Wednesday morning at eight-thirty sharp in room 104. Shortly afterwards peaceful "ayes" or hot debate may be heard depending upon the question at hand. This group, which is composed of the various homeroom presidents, works with its adviser, Mr. Martin, and officers: Joel Stevens, president; Donna Vohlken, vice-president; Ann Wheat, secretary-treasurer. They take charge of events such as the homecoming parade, sponsor assemblies, and hold dances in order to raise revenue for necessary school purchases.

Membership requirements: Each homeroom president is a member of the Student Council, and the officers of this group are elected by the members of the council.

JANUARY THAW

The applause was deafening as the curtain fell on the final act of the senior play, January Thaw. It was another success in the long line of victories for Miss Lloyd and her dramatics students. All the rehearsing and lunches snatched between cues had been worth it.

The ten hard-working committees had laid their plans carefully, and the result was perfection. Besides the traditional cast party, the various committees also held a crew party after the play.

“O Sing Your Songs”

And they do! The three girls' choruses of Freeport High School (see pictures, p. 93) sing their songs all year long both for pleasure and for progress, hoping that you, too, will enjoy their music and that some day they will be members of the A Cappella Choir.

The chorus personnel chiefly is composed of freshmen and sophomores. Their class work varies from sight-reading to the more difficult musical numbers on which they work and learn. The transition from singing in a class group to that of the combined choruses is a definite thrill for the students. Two of the groups receive their fine instruction from Miss Nelson and one from Mr. Doolin.

The public, too, is thrilled when they sing at the annual Christmas Vespers at Consistory auditorium and near the close of the second semester at the Spring Festival. On December 21, the Sunday before Christmas, the girls' choruses sang over WFRL.

Among the repertoire of these singers on their various public appearances were the following selections: “O Sing Your Songs,” by Noble Cain; “Prayer,” from Hansel and Gretel, Humperdinck; “Gesu Bambino,” Yon; “Ave Maria,” Schubert; choruses from The Messiah, Handel; “A Wish,” Chopin; “Indian Cradle Song,” Matthews; “Chinese Lullaby,” Bowers, and “Oh, Suzanna,” Foster.

“Preludes to Eternity”

Sounds heavenly, and it is! “Preludes to Eternity” is based on the poem of Lamartine’s “Meditations Poetic.” This is one of the favorite selections of the Freeport High School 100-voice A Cappella Choir, which is directed by Mr. Doolin. The music is from Liszt’s “Les Preludes.”

The choir went to the state contest at Springfield, May, 1947, and was entered in the 1948 state contest.

On December 6, '47, a few of the students were sent to the Illinois Music Educator’s Association Clinic Choir at Peoria. They gave a benefit concert at Consistory auditorium, February 24, and on March 15 entertained the Rotary with the Fred Waring series: “Dry Bones,” “My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean,” and “Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?”

The contest number this year was Randall Thompson’s “Alleluia,” written at Berkshire Musical Festival, and sung by that choir with the Boston Symphony at the request of Kous-sevitzky.

“Glory,” by Rimsky-Korsakoff, and “Let Us Walk in the Light of the Lord,” by O’Hara-Wilson, are two other favorites of students in the vocal music department of Freeport High.

Row 1: N. Hopkins, V. Boyd, N. Snyder, J. Palmer, S. Kaiser, J. Engle, J. Gilchrist, P. Kleckler

The Freeport High School orchestra has its major appearances at the Spring Festival and the Christmas Vespers. These students also provide the theater orchestra which produces the music enjoyed so much by the audiences attending junior and senior class plays.

The orchestra in conjunction with the students of the vocal music department gives a Christmas concert in the gymnasium which is one of the highlights among assembly programs.

The orchestra is another organization that does not have a chance to appear nearly as often as students could wish.

Honorary Member, Freeport High School Band

Mrs. Mentor Wheat

Thanks to Mrs. Mentor Wheat, Freeport High School has many soloists and ensembles that reach the state finals. She has taken students to numerous contests when it was impossible for them to go otherwise. She also spends a great deal of time with the contestants so they are very adept at playing their selections.

Not only has Mrs. Wheat been a great help herself, but she also has been instrumental in getting others to aid our students by founding the Band Patrons' Association.

Students just naturally accept Mrs. Wheat's services and are deeply grateful while doing so.

Band Patrons

The Band Patrons' Association is composed of the fathers and mothers of members of the high school band and orchestra.

It is mainly through the efforts of these interested persons that the band and orchestra can participate in the contests and win first ratings. Once each year they take charge of Tag Day. The money received from this is used for trips and new uniforms.

Students, as well as Mr. Kubitz and Mr. Seeman, surely appreciate the interest and effort of the parents in helping make the band and orchestra such successful organizations.

Rain or shine . . .

Spring, winter, and fall the band is always on the job. Many hours of practice are spent in the tower-room, where students learn how to play their instruments, and more hours of work are spent on the gridiron practicing the intricate maneuvers that entertain the fans during the halftime intermission at football games.

Not only there are the services of the band needed, but the band marches in city-wide parades, such as the one on Memorial Day.

... the band plays on

Without the music of this organization, how could we enjoy our basketball games or pep assemblies so much?

The climax of the activities of the Freeport High School Band is its spring concert given annually in the Consistory Auditorium. The concert has been tradition since 1912.

Too much appreciation cannot be given to Mr. Kubitz and the band for the service and pleasure they give Freeport High School.

The varsity football team this year was unique in that it was one of the lightest and "fightingest" teams ever produced at Freeport High School. The season started with a 6-0 victory over the much heavier Dubuque Rams. Buck Stout's interception of a pass turned the tide in favor of the Pretzels. Later, Stout plunged over from the one-foot line to score the touchdown. The line from tackle to tackle displayed amazing strength with Lee Mitchell and Paul Hutmacher doing especially fine work on defense.

Next week the Moline Plowboys downed Freeport, 14-0. Though the Pretzels had the ball deep in enemy territory, they could not push over.

Varsity Football

In the following encounter Freeport defeated the highly-rated West Rockford eleven, 14-6. Halfback Ollie Mackert scored one touchdown on an end run. Right end Dale Gramley took a pass from Dick Staas in the end zone for the other touchdown. Stout's fine kicking kept the Freeporters out of trouble, and Sandifer's running contributed to the victory.

Freeport lost a 12-0 game to East Aurora even though the Pretzel line performed effectively in this encounter. One of East Aurora's touchdowns resulted from an intercepted Freeport pass late in the game.

East Rockford was Freeport's next opponent, crushing the Pretz team, 20-7. The only bright spot for Freeport in the game was Buck Stout's 82-yard run for a touchdown.

After this loss Freeport defeated Joliet, 6-0. Coach Howard Weber's "Magnificent Middle" did a great job and pulled the team out of a lot of tough spots by holding the line when it counted.

Elgin defeated Freeport, 13-7, in the next struggle. The Freeport touchdown was made in the last quarter when Jim Green plunged over the one-yard line.

West Aurora's Blackhawks marred the Freeport homecoming by defeating the Pretzels, 7-0, in a hard-fought game.

For the last game of the season, Freeport turned to La Salle with the result, 19-0, in the Hawks' favor.

We may not have had a conference-winning team this year, but we had a group of players who fought hard, in spite of multiple injuries.

Center Leo Krueger was chosen honorary captain of this year's team by his teammates. A new system, that of electing a player captain for next year, was initiated, and a tie in the voting made Jack Bose and Arlyn Thompson co-captains. Next fall there will be nine lettermen back to form the nucleus of a starting team, a team with the spirit of fighting hard to win.

Beloit	19 — 0
West Aurora.....	19 — 7
LaSalle-Peru	14 — 13

In the first encounter of the Frosh-Soph football team, Freeport defeated Dubuque, 13-0. Freshmen backfield starters, Jerry Bender and Mel Johnson, looked very promising; and the line, too, was outstanding.

In the next game Beloit Sophs trampled the Pretzelettes, 27-7. The only Freeport score came in the last quarter.

West Rockford defeated Freeport in the Big-8 opener, 12-6. Harbach recovered a West Rockford fumble and later took a 28-yard pass from Mel Johnson to make the six points.

The East Aurora Kittens showed their claws and beat our boys, 19-0, but later the game was forfeited since one of the East Aurora players was over eighteen.

Freeport lost 7-6 to the East Rockford Rabbits. Fritz Aldridge took a pass from Mel Johnson and scored the six points.

The game with Joliet the next week ended in a 0-0 tie. The Frosh-Sophs played a good defensive game, especially commendable being the work of Bill Spahn and Jerry Bender.

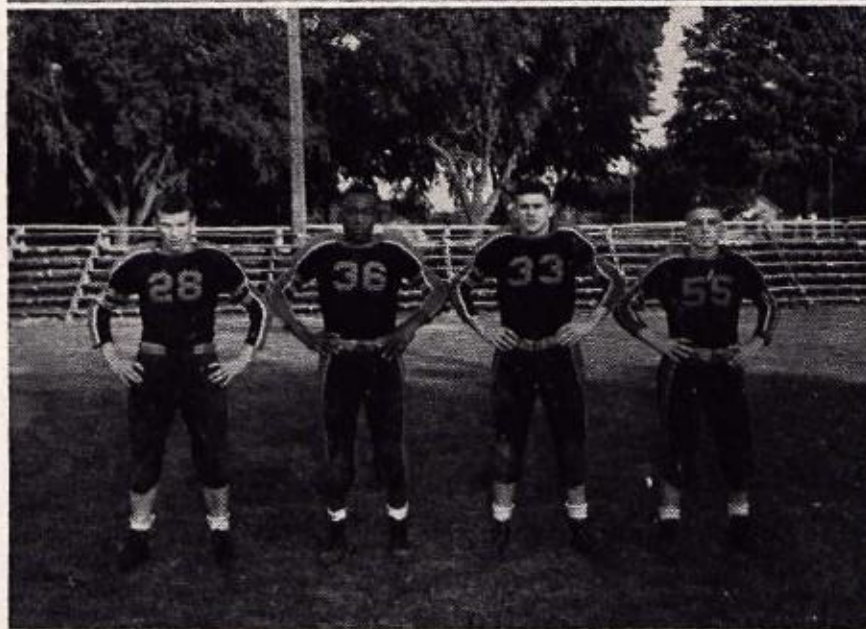

Elgin defeated the Pretzelettes, 7-0.

The goblins or Hallowe'en spirit must have affected Freeport in the struggle with the Beloit team, for they were battered, 19-0.

The homecoming game saw the Pretzelettes lose to West Aurora, 19-7. The touchdown made for Freeport came on a 77-yard fast return made by DeWayne Harbach.

In the final game the Frosh-Sophs lost to La Salle-Peru, 14-13. John Barth scored both touchdowns for Freeport.

Next fall eleven lettermen will be back. DeWayne Harbach was selected by his classmates to be honorary captain of his team. It takes the entire squad, plus fighting spirit, to make a good team. Freeport has both.

Here they were at their peak. First, they defeated West Frankfort; then they received state acclaim by downing the high-rating Salem team.

Buck Stout played the greatest game of his career when he scored 25 points against Salem.

The LaSalle-Peru game was a tight battle all the way, Freeport winning by Willis Dickens' last-minute basket.

Freeport trounced the capable Belvidere team, but West Aurora and East Rockford beat Freeport.

The Pretzels came back by beating Joliet, and then fell before the Warriors for the second time this year.

In their second meeting, Freeport beat LaSalle, 39 to 26. The next week Elgin won from Freeport, 51-42, in the last conference game.

In the Regional, Freeport won from Dakota, Orangeville, and Stockton, winning the championship.

Before the season started this year, Coach Kinert went on record to say he thought the Frosh-Soph team would be lucky to win half of the scheduled games. Despite that prediction, the team opened the season with Dixon by defeating them, 39-20, following this win by victories over Savanna, Sterling, and DeKalb.

Lena Varsity also fell after a tight battle. East Aurora, the next opponent, was Freeport's first conference victory.

In the opinion of their coach, the Pretzel-ettes played a flawless game against West Rockford, defeating the toughest team in the conference.

This win tied the longest winning streak of last year—8 games—but the Frosh-Soph rolled on. They defeated four more teams before again meeting the powerful Lena Varsity. The will to win of the Kinert men brought them their twelfth straight triumph.

The next week they proceeded to break superstition by beating East Rockford, their thirteenth straight win, and to become the first Kinert-coached team to win on a Rockford floor.

Fitchner and Aldridge made their final appearance on the Frosh-Soph team at the Joliet game, being half-year students. Freeport won this game with 22 points.

In the second West Rockford game, Freeport demonstrated what a fighting team that never gives up can do by coming back in the last half to win.

Freeport's next victim was LaSalle-Peru; in this game the biggest score of the season was made, 60-31. Meanwhile the Pretzelettes salted down 16 straight wins.

The following week Freeport met Elgin at Elgin and dropped their first game of the year, 38-33. The very next night the Pretzelettes lost to the showy Moline Frosh-Sophs by a score of 38-31.

The last game of the year was a heart-breaker, tough to the last; Freeport lost when a free throw was missed just before the buzzer sounded. The Frosh-Soph tied for first place with East Rockford.

1947 Track Meets

April 5—West Madison Relays at Madison, $3\frac{1}{4}$ points.

April 11—Triangular Meet: 1st, Freeport, $102\frac{1}{2}$; 2nd, Pecatonica, 23; 3rd, Beloit, $14\frac{1}{2}$ points.

April 15—Dual Meet: Freeport, $59\frac{1}{4}$; Beloit, $53\frac{3}{4}$ points.

April 18—Dual Meet: Freeport, 85; Dakota, 28.

April 22—Dual Meet: East Rockford, 58; Freeport, 55 points.

April 29—Dual Meet: Freeport, 72; Sterling, 41 points.

May 31—Big Eight Conference at E. Aurora: Freeport Varsity, 4th, $31\frac{1}{4}$ Pts.; Freeport Soph's., 6th, $12\frac{1}{2}$ Pts.

The 1947 track team may well feel proud of themselves, for they are the first Freeport team to win the state district meet title and shield. By Mr. Weber's admission, the "47" team was the best in his 18 years as track coach of Freeport High School. Of the boys that participated in track, 16 won varsity letters and 4 won sophomore letters. The lack of sophomore letter winners does not indicate that there were only a few good sophomore performers but indicates that many of the sophomores scored enough varsity points to merit a varsity letter. It is Mr. Weber's belief that the great success of the "47" track was due to their ability to come from behind and win as they did against Beloit and Dubuque. This spirit also was evidenced when Freeport took second in the Stateway Classic at Clinton, the first time that an Illinois school ever finished ahead of Clinton in that track meet. At Clinton Eddie McClanahan took a first in 100-yd. dash, and Cliff Stout took first in the high jump.

Several new school records were set last year.

May 2—Clinton Relays: Freeport, 2nd, 38 points.

May 8—Soph. Dual Meet: Freeport, 58; East Rockford, 55 points.

May 10—East Rockford Relays: Freeport, 6th, 14 points.

May 13—Dual Meet: Freeport, 70; Dubuque, 67 points.

May 17—State District at Rockford: 1st, Freeport, $40\frac{9}{14}$; 2nd, West Rockford, $37\frac{9}{14}$; East Rockford, 3rd, $26\frac{10}{21}$ points.

Among them were the following:

Elmer Schirmer, new 440-yd. record, 53.4 sec.

Frank Cowan, new High Hurdle record, 15.2 sec.

Frank Cowan, School and "Big Eight" record in 200-yd. low hurdles, 23.2 sec.

440-yd. relay, new record, (Cowan, Vohlken, Schirmer, McClanahan) 45.6 sec.

Mile relay (Steinhoff, Fink, Boos, Schirmer) 3 min., 42.9 sec.

Sprint Medley relay (Smith, McClanahan, Vohlken, Boos) 1 min., 39.5 sec.

There were many other outstanding performances last year, and many of these performers were back in '48.

Last year the 7th annual pentathlons were held. The three medal winners were as follows:

1st. Elmer Schirmer with 3208 pts. for a new record.

2nd. Cliff Stout with 2976 pts.

3rd. Frank Cowan with $2785\frac{1}{2}$ pts.

Frank Cowan was elected captain of the track team. He also became the first receiver of the Bill Young memorial trophy, which is given to the track man who scores the most points. His total number of points was $112\frac{1}{2}$.

Letterman's Club

The Freeport High School athletic department sponsors assemblies at which the black and orange high-school letters are presented to members of the athletic squads who have done outstanding work in the various sports. These students automatically become members of the Letterman's Club.

Members of the club usher at basketball games, do odd jobs at the football games, try to win at the faculty-letterman's basketball game, occasionally act as guides around town, and this year supervised the Halloween Party.

The big event of the year is the picnic at Krape Park at which all newcomers are invited to swim in Yellow Creek and to partake of all sorts of refreshments (raw eggs and other nourishing eats.) The senior members kindly wait until the newcomers have had their fill before they even think of eating.

Officers: Leo Krueger, president; Dale Gramley, vice-president; Wm. Sandifer, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Weber, adviser.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association is an organization to which every girl in school could belong. Membership is determined by points earned by participating in various sports after school. If you were to walk into the high school gymnasium on a Friday evening after school, you would see a peppy group of girls waiting a bit impatiently for their weekly meeting to begin.

First comes a short business meeting, and then the activity begins. On Friday evening the various sports in which these athletic-minded girls participate include soccer, volleyball, basketball, kickball, and archery.

On Wednesday night they may join a swimming class for six weeks. In the winter months there are bowling leagues which G.A.A. members may join. This year five girls entered the bowling contest.

About once a month the girls have a specially planned entertainment: member party, hay-ride, picnic, or square dancing.

Most of the members go out for every sport offered so they can earn a letter sweater.

Membership requirements: New members earn 50 points before the initiation ceremony. The ceremony is conducted twice each school year. Officers: Miss Poynter, adviser; Lois Kerr, president; Carol Bolender, vice-president; Joyce Millam, secretary-treasurer.

Playday Highlight of Year

One of the outstanding highlights in the lives of G.A.A. members is the annual playday. Last year the activities of playday were held at Freeport High School. The various schools participating in events were Dakota, Elizabeth, Galena, Lena, Pearl City, Stockton, Winslow, and Freeport.

Tennis

Freeport's racqueteers had one of the toughest seasons last spring. Winning about a third of their meets, the lettermen, R. Meier, D. Womelsdorf, W. Dickens, P. Callagher, and J. Willits, played hard and vigorously, and gave more than one other team a difficult struggle. The Freeport team, coached by Mr. Clarno, was represented at the District Meet by Bob Meier, who won two and lost one match to go to the semi-finals. At the "Big Eight" meet, Bob Ely and David Womelsdorf also did fine, winning their first double match.

The record last year was as follows:

Beloit 5	Freeport 2
Belvidere 0	Freeport 7
Belvidere 0	Freeport 7
East Rockford 12.....	Freeport 0
East Rockford 6.....	Freeport 0

Baseball

By way of experiment the athletic department inaugurated baseball this year. Coach Joe Spudich reported that about 50 boys turned out for practice. Wow! Nine teams and an umpire. The team will play its home games at Taylor Park. Baseball will, however, remain a minor sport since it has not been adopted officially by the "Big-8."

Camera Club

The Camera Club was re-organized second semester, 1948, having dispersed entirely for a year.

The present charter members are Fritz Neyhart, Jim Madden, Ellsworth Griffin, Roger Gallagher, Charles Bennett, and Fritz Gill. The adviser of the club is Mr. Rubendall.

Anyone interested in advanced photography is invited to join this organization.

The Golf Squad

The golf squad had no worse than an average season this year, losing 8, winning 5 and tying 1. This lone tie came in the Waukegan meet, 7½ to 7½. Both East and West Rockford dealt Freeport an 8 out of 2 loss. In the Madison, Wisconsin, triangular meet, Freeport's struggling golf squad placed second. West Madison had 430 strokes, and Freeport was only 8 off the face. The squad placed fourth in the invitational meet, placed third in the 8th district meet, and fourth in the "Big 8" conference.

Some of the most interesting meets were the York of Elmhurst meet near Chicago, the Madison meet and the Waukegan meet. The squad played a total of 19 meets this year. There were six letter winners this year: Bob Cook, Harry Foley, Andy Hutchins, Clark Toussaint, Cal Deuster, and Don Mammoser. Only two of these will be back for next year: Bob Cook and Harry Foley.

Individual scoring:

Clark Toussaint, 24 points.

Bob Cook, 20 points.

Don Mammoser, 19½ points.

Cal Deuster, 10 points.

Harry Foley, 9½ points.

Andy Hutchins, 6½ points.

Camerata Club

Membership in the Camerata Club is limited to not more than twenty and not less than ten, and all students must be keenly interested in music.

Club program participants include outside entertainers as well as club members. See panel, p. 98, for picture of the 1947-'48 Camerata Club.

Students belonging to the present organization are Barbara Borneman, Betty Buhlmann, Willis Dickens, Jim Elliott, Bob Ely, Charles Bennett, Jim Madden, Sue Matthews, Joan Olson, Ronnie Polhill, Molly Rideout, Ronald Russell, Joel Stevens, Neal Steinhoff, Donna Vohlken, Felicity Scholes, Ann Wheat, Betty Young. 1948 CARNIVAL—THE CARNI-BOWL

Immediately after the '48 carnival co-chairmen, Sally Rideout and John Barrett, had chosen "Carni-Bowl" (following the popular football-bowl fashion) as the theme for this year, activity teemed in all directions. Kings and queens and their managers were chosen by all classes. Money-making sales and assemblies were planned.

The senior class carnival committee formulated plans for decorations, general type and arrangement of booths, the baby show, and style show.

Time moved on, and, presto, on the evening of February 16, carnival merry-makers beheld a huge "Carni-Bowl" golden crown on the stage as a background for the baby-show, the style show, all the announcing, and as the climax to the carnival—the coronation itself.

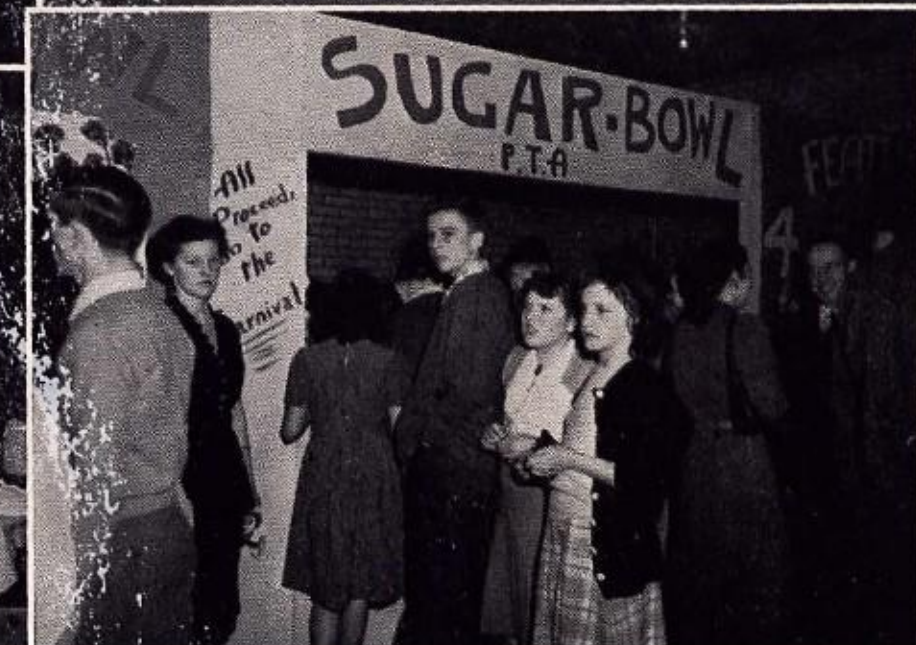

Lining the walls of the gymnasium were all the carni-bowls; the Sugar-Bowl, where the best candy and cookies ever to be tasted were sold by our own parents; the Salad Bowl; Confetti Bowl — and a dozen other money-making booths that helped make up the fun of the evening.

Yes, the senior queen and king were crowned, but the royal aspirants to the throne from all classes also won as did all committee members because the Carni-Bowl was a huge success. Without it the '48 "Polaris" could not have had its being.

And without Mrs. Andersen,, who was the carnival adviser, all the committee faculty advisers, carnival co-chairmen, student chairmen and members of the committees, Freeport merchants who sponsored the style show and who helped otherwise, the parents of the students (many parents were interested in the Carni-Bowl activities), and everyone else who helped — well, the carnival itself never would have existed.

To all these—the deepest appreciation and a genuine thank you from the Class of '48.

As soon as school begins, work on the Polaris begins. The administration and some of our faculty choose the editors, preferably the spring before. Members of the staff are chosen for their ability to write and willingness to work.

If the staff is wise, the theme will be decided the previous spring and the first draft of the "dummy" planned.

In September the long process of getting the yearbook ready for print really begins. Pictures planned for in the "dummy" must be taken, mounted, and shipped to the engraver. The "dummy" itself must be rearranged and arranged again.

Articles must be assigned, written, and often rewritten to fit both the theme and page space. There are hours upon hours of typing to be done. There are several thousand names to check and recheck to avoid errors.

And there are always deadlines to be met—from September until spring rolls around again. When the copy comes back from the printer, it must be proofread; and it is then that the book began to take shape.

Yes, there is plenty of work for everyone, but there is enjoyment along with the work, as anyone will know who has heard the banter and the stories told in the Polaris room. And there is a deeper enjoyment when the book "comes off" the press.

This year we introduce to you Doc Pretz, the spirit of Freeport High, made what he is by every individual you. We hope you find our spokesman novel, amusing, and inspiring, too.

You will find in the '48 Polaris a review of events of this school year, a revealing of our daily school-life just as it is. We have been thinking of the future, too, as we unfolded the fun and work that enter into the activities and duties of a school year—days spent in gaining a firm foothold for the future.

Just as every person has a deeper self he often does not reveal upon first acquaintance, so with Doc Pretz and the underlying theme of our '48 Polaris: you who read this book are in that theme, you and a plea for world peace and your co-operation for that peace.

National Honor Society

Approximately 10 percent of the class of '48 will be elected to the Freeport High School chapter of the National Honor Society.

The following students were included as juniors in the election of the society: June Ely, Robert Ely, Marilyn Koeller, Sally Rideout, Mildred Spliethoff. The remaining senior members are to be elected to the society soon after this book goes to press the following:

To be eligible for election, a student must rank in the upper 10 percent of the class in scholarship and also be outstanding in service to the school.

Not more than 10 percent of any graduating class may be selected. At Freeport High School each faculty member participates in the selection process, the final selection being made on the basis of the faculty reports and the students' records by the Honor Society Council comprised of Mr. Mensenkamp, Miss Bowers, Mr. [unclear], Miss Huebner, and Miss Hansen.

Officers elected for the present Freeport High School chapter of the National Honor Society are Marilyn Koeller, president; Sally Rideout, vice-president; Mildred Spliethoff, secretary. Miss Bowers is the adviser.

(See Picture, p. 86)

The following is a list of members of the local chapter of National Thespians: M. Broge, president; M. Little, vice-president; L. Luebbing, secretary; B. Walters, treasurer; A. Wheat, clerk; R. Dorsey; C. Stauffer; D. Siensen; S. Rideout; J. Ely; J. Howington; J. Kintzel; G. Snyder; B. Ely; P. Sellke; D. Peck; H. Peacock; B. Knipschild; D. Smith; Miss Lloyd, adviser.

Interest in dramatics is the requirement for the first club group. Full-membership students in the second picture must work for club progress, having no unexcused absences. Freshman College Program at Freeport High School

This is the second year of a freshman college program at Freeport High School. Mr. Reuben Baumgartner is at the head of the local extension program, and the subjects offered are the same in content and time as at the University of Illinois. The program is under the supervision of the University of Illinois Extension Division, and all credits received by students registered at Freeport are recorded by the University in the Extension Division.

Extension divisions have been developed by various universities throughout the United States in view of the shortage of college facilities, enabling students who otherwise might be unable to attend college to obtain their first year of higher education. There are several advantages to extension divisions: financial problems are lessened; smaller classes permit more individual attention; students who ordinarily would not go to college at all often obtain at least one year of college work.

Most Freeport High School students reading these words soon are going to find themselves facing a serious situation, the obtaining of further education. Whether they are freshmen or seniors, they will discover that they must extend their education in order to cope with the newer world in vogue. They must take advantage of the best opportunities the present world offers, and to give the most service to the community in which they will live and to which they owe their country and world.

Since the industrial revolution of a century ago, the world rapidly has become a more complicated place in which to live. This change has become especially more complicated during the decades following the beginning of the First World War. Hand in hand with this change, higher education becomes necessary. Statistics show this clearly. In 1921-22, 437,822 students were enrolled in colleges and universities. This number more than doubled in the following ten years to 989,757 in 1931-32. One recent survey shows 1,558,981 students enrolled for 1946-47, 10 per cent of whom were veterans. These veterans are taking full advantage of government aid to make up for the education they missed. They realize that the majority of employers desire college education in their employees, and thus recognize the need for higher education. As such, it is predicted that for the next four years veterans will comprise twenty-five per cent of the enrollment in men's colleges. They realize that a college education is most important in this "day and age."

Although our Freeport High School attempts to inform students of college requirements through pamphlets and instructors' advice, many students are ignorant of the requirements of the college which they hope to attend. These students should write to their chosen school for desired information at least a year before being graduated from high school. If this is done, the requirements may be fulfilled by the time the student is graduated.

Although different colleges have slightly different entrance requirements, colleges in general have the following: 15 units (30 semester credits) of high school education; algebra and plane geometry; two years of Latin, French, or Spanish; good high school grades; two majors and one minor. A major consists of 3 years of work in the same field. The University of Illinois and some others require two majors and a minor for entrance.

Extensions are doing a wonderful job in giving American youth and veterans a chance for an education. In view of the present demands for further education it could be hoped that such service from our universities would be continued indefinitely.
